These concerts are the first of their kind to be held on the Cascade for at least ten years.

An outdoor evening concert at dusk at the end of the working week, sitting on the steps listening to one of the best chamber choirs in Armenia perform some amazing Armenian music – what more can you ask for.....

Hover Chamber Choir are currently in the process of preparing for a choir tour of the UK, in September 2003, touring the cities of Edinburgh, Glasgow, Cambridge and London and presenting a program of Armenian sacred and folk music to the general UK public.
